TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION OF PAINTING

OCTOBER THE FIFTH THROUGH OCTOBER THE TWENTY-SIXTH

1930

WORCESTER ART MUSEUM
WORCESTER, MASSACHUSETTS

CATALOGUE OF THE EXHIBITION

FOREWORD

For the past twenty-six years the Worcester Art Museum has given to Worcester artists and art students an opportunity to exhibit their work at the Museum. These exhibitions have gradually ceased to attract the interest of many of the exhibitors, especially in the arts and crafts.

This year the Director of the Museum decided to invite the better known artists of Worcester to exhibit one painting and to eliminate the arts and crafts department. Further, to enhance the interest in the exhibition, the Director visited many of the summer art colonies of New England and invited a number of artists to exhibit paintings selected from the works seen at these shows.

It is the hope of the Museum that the chance to see their own work in conjunction with that of artists from outside their own locality will help to stimulate Worcester artists to further endeavors.
